PRESS RELEASE

18 March 2011

Integration through Culture – Dance, Dance, Dance

Come and celebrate a mass of exotic dances inspired from around the world!

This fabulous event will take place in the Roland Levinsky Building at Plymouth University on Saturday, April 2nd and Sunday, April 3rd 2011, 7pm onwards

The Devon and Cornwall South Asian Society prove there's much more to the South West than holidays, great weather and stunning scenery. This unique event, held annually, aims to create awareness of integration in the multicultural society we live in today, through dance.

In aid of St Luke's Hospice, 'Dance, Dance, Dance' is a window into the enchanting, tapestry of a global dance, with a view to realise the full potential of our co-existence and to promote racial and cultural harmony among different communities.

St Luke's fundraiser Steff Cherington commented "These will be really brilliant evenings, bringing together all walks of life from Devon and Cornwall. We owe the South Asian Society a big thank you for their generosity"

Proceeds of the raffle and sale of souvenir programmes will be donated to St Luke's Hospice. There are a limited number of tickets available costing £5 each, to include light beverages. Tickets sold on a first-come-first-served basis - book tickets early to avoid disappointment!

For tickets or programme related information, please contact Dr Sanjay Sharma by email, sanjay.sharma@plymouth.ac.uk, or phone, 07920484482.
