

Mayor and Marines Join Hospice for Tea Dance

It's that time of year again when St Luke's asks you to dig out your dancing shoes and join us for our Strictly Christmas Tea Dance.

The ever-popular entertainer Len Jackman, will once again host and provide the music for the St Luke's Hospice annual tea dance.

The event will take place at Plymouth Guildhall on Friday Thursday, December 17th from 2pm until 4.30pm and Plymouth's Lord Mayor and Lady Mayoress, councillors Ken and Wendy Foster, will be in attendance.

A group of Marines from Stonehouse Barracks, Plymouth, will also be making an appearance and joining in with the dancing.

Tickets at a cost of £5.00 are available now by calling: St Luke's Fundraising Office on 01752 492626 or email: events@stlukes-hospice.org.uk. Tickets are also available from Len Jackman on: 01548 830531.
