

Mon Feb 8th 2010

Plymouth's Lord Mayor & Lady Mayoress Officially Open
New Flagship Store

The Lord Mayor and Lady Mayoress of Plymouth, Councillors Ken and Wendy Foster have officially cut a ribbon to mark the opening of a new look flagship store for St Luke's Hospice.

The new shop (in the former Adam's store at 17 Cornwall Street) is now the largest of the charity's chain of twenty-seven retail outlets, which can be found across Plymouth, South West Devon and East Cornwall.

As well as selling high quality donated goods the new store will also be information point where people can pick up information about the work of the charity and find out about its many fundraising events.

Well known local Fashionista Kevin House of Uno boutique was on hand at the grand shop opening to help promote a brand new 'Swish' fundraising event by demonstrating how to create a capsule wardrobe from charity shop clothes.

'Swishing' is clothes swapping on a grand scale and it is a craze that is sweeping the nation. Billed as 'Plymouth's Biggest Clothes Swapping Party', the St Luke's Swish will take place at Plymouth Guildhall on Friday 26th March beginning at 6pm.

For tickets contact the fundraising team on 01752 492626.

ENDS