Spectacular Charity Fashion Show at Pavilions (Biggest in the UK) Truly will be 'One to Remember' for St Luke's

Promising to be the most spectacular yet, the St Luke's Hospice 'One to Remember' Fashion Show returns for a third year and will be held on Sunday 5th April at Plymouth Pavilions. Tickets are available now from the Pavilions Box Office on 0845 146 1460.

Produced by Andrew Facy Productions and Uno Boutique, the event will be packed with special effects, surprise celebrity guests, live music and of course spectacular fashion. The show is to be jointly hosted by BBC Radio Devon's Judi Spiers and David 'Fitz' Fitzgerald.

Miller Countrywide Estate Agents are once again sponsoring the show which will feature collections from Nicole Farhi, Kurt Geiger, Moss, Animal, CC, Uno, Jon Brown, Spoilt, BB Gowns and many more with hair and make-up by Toni and Guy for the professional models who are taking to the catwalk alongside members of St Luke's staff and volunteers.

Show producer Andrew Facy, said: "This will be the best yet and it is the biggest charity fashion show in the UK. We have all the ingredients from previous shows plus spectacular lighting and effects, professional models, students from Plymouth College of Art plus volunteers, doctors and nurses taking part. In addition live music, dancers and some great surprise guests. This is much more than a fashion show – and it really will be 'One to Remember.' It is a Plymouth event not to be missed and we are all incredibly excited about it!"

Tickets are available from the Pavilions Box Office: 0845 146 1460 priced £8 and £10 per seat or at VIP tables of ten with complimentary wine at £20 per seat.
